Corporate Enforcement Authority (CEA) Report on Protected Disclosures 2022

The Corporate Enforcement Authority was established on 7 July 2022 under the Companies (Corporate Enforcement Authority) Act 2021.

The Protected Disclosures Act 2014, as amended, requires public bodies to prepare and publish a report each year relating to the number of protected disclosures (internal and external) made to public bodies in the preceding year in addition to detailing the action taken in response to the disclosures made.

The CEA is prescribed by law to receive protected disclosures from workers in connection with all matters relating to the CEA's functions (as set out under section 944D of the Companies Act 2014).

From establishment on 7 July 2022 the CEA is the recipient of reports. Table 1 sets out information about Protected Disclosures made to the CEA in 2022.
